[44 E 23rd St.]

1918

February 25th, 1918.

American Defense Society,
303 Fifth Avenue,
New York.

Dear Sirs:-

Mr. John Flanagan handed us the other day bronze artist's impressions of the distinguished service medal recently issued by your Society. Would it be possible for us later on to get a copy complete with ribbon and bar so we can display this with similar medals ?

I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Curator.

Mr. H. D. Craig, Secretary,
American Defense Society,
44 East 23rd Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I trust you have not forgotten our Museum as regards the medal of the American Defense Society which, in your letter of February 27th, you mention that you will send it up to us later. We are now having an exhibition of the insignia and devices worn by our soldiers and sailors, and would appreciate a specimen at this time. I hope you can come up and see the various and interesting things we have on view.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

August 31st, 1918.

Mr. H. D. Craig,
American Defense Society,
44 East 23rd Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of the medal given by the American Defense Society to our men who have performed a distinguished service. I herewith beg to thank you in behalf of the Society for this contribution, and will add it to our exhibition shortly when I arrange a new case where this and one or two other similar medals can properly go.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
